Re: Appalachian Power Company and
Wheeling Power Company
Case No. 21-0032-E-IMM

Dear Ms. Graley:

I enclose herewith for filing on behalf of Appalachian Power Company and Wheeling Power Company the original and twelve (12) copies of the affidavits of publication evidencing substantial compliance with the Commission's Notice Order and the requirements of RULE 23 of the Commission's Rules for the Construction and Filing of Tariffs for the publication of notice in the above-referenced proceedings. There were two counties in which the local newspapers, although they were provided with the notice in a timely fashion, failed to publish it, The Independent Herald in Wyoming County and The Welch News in McDowell County. The Companies have contacted these newspapers again and expect that the notice will be published in those two counties in the near future. In light of the other publications effected by the Companies, including newspapers of statewide circulation, the Companies submit that they have substantially complied with the Commission's Notice Order.

Very truly yours,

NOTICE OF FILING AND HEARING

On January 20, 2021, Appalachian Power Company (APCo) and Wheeling Power Company (WPCo) (together the Companies) filed an application, duly verified, for approval of a written plan for a middle-mile broadband infrastructure expansion project (the Project) and associated cost recovery, pursuant to W. Va. Code §24-2-1p(f).

The Project is a middle-mile broadband infrastructure expansion project in APCo's service territory in Logan and Mingo Counties pursuant to legislation to expand the availability of broadband services and technology in West Virginia.

The application is on file with and available for public inspection at the Public Service Commission, 201 Brooks Street, in Charleston, West Virginia.

The increases shown are based on averages of all customers in the indicated class. Individual customers may receive increases that are greater or less than average. Furthermore, the requested rates and charges among the various classes of customers are only a proposal and are subject to change (increases or decreases) by the Public Service Commission in its review of this filing.

The Commission set a procedural schedule, including a hearing date on the Application, if necessary, that will begin at 9:30 a.m. on April 28, 2021, in the Howard M. Cunningham Hearing Room at the Commission's offices at 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia.
